Encouragement

“One of the highest of human duties is the duty of encouragement. It is easy to laugh at men’s ideals; it is easy to pour cold water on their enthusiasm; it is easy to discourage others. The world is full of discouragers. We have a Christian duty to encourage one another. Many a time a word of praise or thanks or appreciation or cheer has kept a man on his feet. Blessed is the man who speaks such a word.” - William Barclay -

“What kind of example am I?...”

“Remember those who led you, who spoke the word of God to you; and considering the result of their conduct, imitate their faith.” Hebrews 13:7

“Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God.” 3 John 1:11

“Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ.”
1 Corinthians 11:1

Time

By Mike Benson

Every morning God doles out a limited amount of time to every soul on the planet...

86,400 seconds, 1,440 minutes, or 24 hours--depending upon how you count time. We can do what we want with this daily allotment: spend it, use it, waste it, kill it, invest it, or just ignore it. Whatever we do it, our time for that one day will be gone. There is no way to save any of it.

"The day of our lives are seventy years; and if by reason of strength they are eighty years, yet their boast is only labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off and we fly away."

Psalm 90:10

Quotations about the Bible

"Within the covers of the Bible are the answers for all the problems men face." - Ronald Reagan -

"It ain't those parts of the Bible that I can't understand that bother me, it is the parts that I do understand."

- Mark Twain -

"A studious perusal of the sacred volume will make better citizens, better fathers, and better husbands"

- Thomas Jefferson -

Strength for The Asking

A little boy was having a hard time lifting a heavy stone. His father asked, "Are you using all your strength?"

"Yes, I am," the boy replied. "No, you're not," said the father. "I'm right here waiting, and you haven't asked me to help."

When we are faced with a problem that seems unsolvable or a burden that is too heavy, we might ask ourselves, "Are we using all our strength?" Our Father, too, is waiting to help.

Some Things to Think on

Author Unknown

- Never neglect daily prayer. When we pray, remember that God is present, and that He hears us.
- Never neglect daily private Bible reading. When we read, remember that God is speaking to us, and that we are to believe and act upon what He says.
- If we are in doubt whether a thing is right or wrong, go to God and ask for help in making our decision the right one.
- Never take our standard of Christianity from other Christians or argue that because this or that person does something, we may. Instead, ask ourselves, "What would Christ do?" Strive to follow Him.

. Fanny Crosby

The grave of Fanny Crosby, in Bridgeport, Connecticut, has a simple marker that reads, "Aunt Fanny-She Hath Done What She Could."

Fanny Crosby was blind from six weeks of age because of a mistreatment by a man claiming to be a doctor. Yet she wrote more than 9000 hymns, such as: Blessed Assurance; All the Way My Savior Leads Me; I Am Thine, O Lord; Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross; Praise Him, Praise Him; Rescue the Perishing; To God Be the Glory" and Tell Me the Story of Jesus, to name a few.

Although blind, she was the guest of six presidents and a personal friend to Grover Cleveland. Her 9000 hymns were set to music by every popular American tunesmith of the nineteenth century and still blesses the church of Jesus Christ in our day.

Someone has said, "It doesn't take much of a man to be used of God. It just takes all of him."
